APPOINTMENTS & TRANSITIONS

Warren Joins Borah, Goldstein, Altschuler, Nahins & Goidel, P.C.

Christopher D. Warren has joined New York real estate law firm Borah, Goldstein, Altschuler, Nahins & Goidel, P.C., the firm said in a press release. He will practice as an associate in its Supreme Court Division, concentrating on complex commercial and real estate litigation in state and federal courts.

Warren graduated cum laude from New York Law School, where he was a Harlan Scholar and on the Executive Board of the Law Review.

He was previously an associate at Davidoff Hutcher & Citron LLP. Prior to earning his J.D., he gained real estate business experience at a national bank by helping companies expand their investment portfolios. His industry background and practical experience provide him with insight into his clients' companies.

Warren is a member of the Construction Law Committee at the New York City Bar Association and previously served on its Land Use & Zoning Law Committee.
